

ROBINSON WILL DIRECT EVENTS

Will Give Special Numbers As Gold and Green Attraction

Directed by W. O. Robinson of Salt Lake City, in charge of dance activities for the L. D. S. church, a mass demonstration of the grace and culture of the dance will be given tonight as a feature of the annual four-stake Gold and Green ball at the White City ballroom. In formal attire, the following dancers will take part in the demonstration:

From Four Stakes

Norma Green, Ethel Poulter, Eleanor Jost, Rhea Fox, Leo W. Fox, Eileen Evans, Kathleen Latham, Orlando J. Bowman, Lorin J. Hawkes, Eugene Brough, Athleen Johnson, Tracy Hall, Ida Rose Langford, Russell Croft, George Van Boerum, Della Turner, Merrill T. Burton, Ruth Read, Nada Swenson, Eugene Talbott, Elaine Bingham, Norman Fair, Rozella Mitchell, Ronald Weathers, Gladys Henderson, Shirley Penton, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hunsaker, Ruth Neville, Edna Burton, Shirley Harbertson, Irma Langford, Orlene Webster, LaVon Newey, Lou Rinda Briggs, Chlothel Gale, Clarence Byrne, Gordon Dalton, Harold Woods, Elmer Knowles, Keith Manfull, Hosea Ellison, Darold Burt, Milton Berglund and E. M. Woolley.

The dancers are from each of the four stakes, and have been active in Mutual Improvement association events. The Spanish waltz, the official M. I. A. Viennese waltz, Gold and Green Senoritamia Tango and other special numbers will be presented in review with leading steps by W. O. Robinson, Eileen Evans, Reginald Waynes, Beth Evans, Alma Fletcher and Leah Kimball.

In Promenade

There will be a grand promenade at nine o'clock. Leaders will be: Mr. and Mrs. Vernal Johnson, (Mrs. Johnson is the dance director of Ogden stake); Mont Woolley, dance director of the Mount Ogden stake; Mr. and Mrs. E. Kenneth Mills, (Mrs. Mills is co-chairman of the dance). Then will follow the other stake dance directors, the general board of M. I. A. of Salt Lake City and the four stake M. I. A. boards, presidents of the four stakes, city and county officials, and M. I. A. dancers and teachers.

No Budget Tickets

Budget tickets will not be honored at the dance, declared E. Montith Woolley, general chairman. Flowers will be given everyone attending and approximately 3500 are expected, he said.