

Sir Ronald Ross 1857-1932 British MD & Bacteriologist

born at Almora, India 13 May 1857

after M.D. in London entered Indian medical service in 1881

Began study of Malaria in 1892. Verified in 1895 that microorganism of disease spread by mosquitoes and in 1897-98 investigated the life history of the parasites.

Received nobel prize in 1902 for medicine.

I know this little thing
A myriad men may save.
O death where is thy sting?
Thy victory, O Grave?

} Referring to the discovery that
Malaria is carried by mosquitoes

Baptism for dead - degrees of glory - resurrection - fall

leads in the flesh

Burial Practices -

gospel plan
perspective

RESURRECTION

Ruth 1:17 (page 349) "...if ought but death part thee and me."

Psalms 23:4 (page 698) "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me."

I Corinth 15:55 (page 235) "O death, where is thy sting?"

O grave, where is thy victory? (Paul)

Isaiah 25:8 (p. 839) "He will swallow up death in victory; ---" and the Lord God will wipe away tears from off all faces.

Psalms 90:10 (p. 739) "The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away."

Ecclesiastes 3:1 (p. 803) "To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven. A time to be born, and a time to die. A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance. A time to keep silence and a time to speak. Wherefore I praised the dead which are already dead, more than the living which are yet alive."

Ecclesiastes 12:7 (p. 810) "Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it."