

He never knew him except three Baugh ^{met} ~~lets~~ in Ogden - Helen & 3 weeks in that flat - 1915 - 3 yrs before Dad & Florence md.

Wonderful man. had a glass of wine - golly with Grand children, Helen Henry's children & Janie's children & Phoebe Drapar. Dad didn't meet them until the funeral.

Fa's fa merchant in La Fayette.
Dyrup ^{Henry C Jr} peter. fa 4 yrs old when Henry C Sr died. ~~was~~ Henry C's fa Wm took him & raised him. Fa had 4 sisters. Wm Hall 6 ft tall & weighed 200 lbs. (Facker told him this). Henry C Jr. at 20 took what was coming from his fa & bought a team & wagon with it & started west, picked up junk on way & sold it, ended up in Cedar Rapids Ia. Drove a team with his msn in mt Vernon. When they got to cedar rapids he bought a house on 2nd Ave & paid cash.
for it became 1st dr on 5th ^{dragon} st. railway, on 7th avenue - He & Florence went in $9 house sold & moved. when got to Lafayette - Clare just recently torn down.

Dad he ever mention his grandmother.
Happy did he get along with G. fa.
lived with G. J. in La Fayette, Henry C Sr. lived in La Fayette Ohio.

Henry C ~~was~~ was 14 when his father died.
Wm lived in Sam town - so a very land in La Fayette.
d 20 Oct 1858.
Son Henry 11 Oct Oct 1858. That's wrong.
(Look into) -

When Howard was 2 yrs old Henry C Jr moved to Pocatello, Ida. Got a job as a fireman in ^{short line} R.P. when $\frac{1}{2}$ yrs of age Henry C ~~moved~~ ^{transferred} to Ogden & worked on Cooke Valley line from Ogden to Logan, worked for 6 yrs & then went as a brakeman on So Pacific R.R. worked there for 7 yrs & then quit & started a transfer business in Ogden. When he came to Ogden he paid cash for his home at 2783 Pacific Avenue.

233) 25th st. transfer wagon (2 horse)
& one horse express wagon. Sold Hay, grain, kindling wood, coal. Got coal from Vpd, sack it up. In those days people used coals to cook with & heat apt bldg. Have to carry coal 2 or 3 stories high in those apts.
100 lbs of coal on your back at a time.

He never did any of this himself (Henry) he hired others to do it.

Howard started working for him abt 24. He worked for R.P. as a call boy & a fireman. went to work for Dal for abt 10 yrs. He was the first one to get trucks