

Tracy said "all the money I've let you spend on your genealogy & you don't want to do mine?"

Then Virginia abt 5 or 6 began to cry. What's the matter with you? I asked "You're going to get a divorce," she said. No we're not. I said.

~~The~~ Discipline of children. It's a good thing to agree <sup>in principle</sup> that a good marriage can survive even disagreement on this.

I ended up being the disciplinarian.

~~But~~ but together we set rules abt dating

A ~~to~~ times to get in after dates and together we enforced them.

our children will remember when ~~the~~ Tracy did raise his <sup>hand or his hand</sup>

~~There is a saying - the family that plays~~ <sup>against</sup> ~~together stays together.~~ <sup>them & usually it was</sup> ~~after we came to Utah so~~ <sup>when the children were</sup> ~~young me a bad~~ <sup>time -</sup>

when we left Schenectady we realized we hadn't taken our children to important places in the East. We tried to get all these into.
