

When the War came, Tracy went in as an ^{line} officer - ~~radar officer~~. We spent 6 months in. but
~~was~~ was able to transfer into Radar.
~~meanwhile~~. I followed him for a while but when Tracy Jr was on the way
Sherlene & I went back to Ogden.
Tracy Jr was the cheapest baby I had.
I had him in the military hospital ~~at~~ the base in Clearfield. $25. for my food.

~~I~~ when Tracy got out of the service,
after the war. Tracy went back to the U & got his master's & Ph.D. We lived in stadium village on his G.I. allowance.
That G.I. bill was a smart idea because thousands of Navy & Army men went back to school on it & took out degrees.
The income tax they later paid as professionals ^{probably more than} I ^{after} when he graduated. we drove ^{with his Ph.D. in 1948 he took} back ^{ago with}
to Schenectady N.Y. in an car we had ^{Y-F} ^{purchased} brought from his brother Eugene.
The car had no upholstery & leaned to one side, but it took us safely East -
we used it until we could buy a new one.
We were at G.I. ^{from 1948 to 1955} where Tracy became ~~of~~ somewhat famous as the man who made man-made diamonds in Dec 1954.

In 1955 we came to Utah where Tracy
had accepted a position as Director of Research at Y
