NAVAL SUPPLY DEPOT
OAKLAND, 4. CALIFORNIA

18 APR 1946

My dear Ensign Hall:

On the occasion of your release from active duty I desire to express my appreciation of the services which you have rendered to the Navy in time of war.

During your assignment in the Electronics Supply Branch as Assistant Storage Officer from February 1946 to the present, you performed your duties in a manner which met the high standards of the naval service. The qualities of diligence and resourcefulness which you displayed contributed materially to the huge task of supplying vitally needed electronic gear to our ships and bases in all parts of the Pacific.

It is my hope that you will meet with every success in your return to civilian life.

Sincerely yours,

JOHN GAFFNEY
Rear Admiral (SG) USN
Supply Officer in Command
