PLEASE TAG AND CHECK YOUR BAGGAGE BEFORE YOU TAKE THE TRAIN

Today, we are carrying 3 or 4 times more baggage than before Pearl Harbor. The result is that vestibules become jammed with baggage . . . and untagged bags are occasionally misplaced or lost.

For your own protection, please mark your baggage plainly with your name and destination . . . take with you in your Pullman car only such baggage as you need on the trip . . . and check all heavy luggage through FREE* to your destination.

THANK YOU

*Up to 150 pounds per adult passenger is carried and liability assumed up to $100—FREE. Greater value may be declared at 10 cents per $100 value not exceeding $2,500.00 for any one passenger.

THE New Haven R.R.

This didn't have to happen...
 There was an empty berth on the train that night. With clean sheets... soft blankets... and the comforts a fighting man deserves.
 But he couldn't have it.
 Because someone who had reserved that berth didn't cancel the reservation when plans changed.
 Not much of a way to treat a hero is it?
 Should you be unable to use the enclosed tickets please notify us immediately. Thank you.

Cancelled Reservations

It will be helpful, when Pullman tickets purchased for space are not to be used, if notice to that effect is given as much before departure time of train as possible—not less than one hour.

Your helpful cooperation is respectfully requested.
