Gentlemen:

I ~~have~~ recently moved from Colonie, N.Y. where I was employed ~~at~~ <sup>to</sup> the nearby General Electric Research Laboratory, ~~at the "Knolls"~~. I am now employed as Director of Research and Professor of Chemistry at Brigham Young University, <sup>Provo, Utah</sup>. I plan to build a house in <sup>this area</sup> Orem, Utah just outside the corporate limits of Provo, Utah, the city in which the University is located. I wish to know if I am eligible for a mortgage loan guarantee on this <sup>house</sup> proposed residence. My former guaranteed loan (G-1325 with Pioneer Building-Loan and Savings Association of Troy, N.Y.) has been completely paid off. The house and property were located on Vly Rd, Colonie, N.Y. The house (with an additional lot and improvements) was <sup>sold</sup> ~~purchased~~ August 18, 1955 for $18,000 (~~the~~ <sup>I purchased the</sup> house and original lot were purchased for $11,450 by me April 26, 1951 (closing date) & The purchaser, Ruth N. Waltermyer Whitehall, ~~now~~ <sup>she has</sup> holds the property with a mortgage (no. 16315) <sup>with</sup> Schenectady Savings Bank. Her mailing address is % Niskayuna, <sup>N.Y.</sup> Postoffice. →*
