A bad dog never sees the wolf—Herbert

8:00 Same old schedule --- Only one 8:30 difference. I hurried! I had to 9:00 with a report on Tschumach to pre-9:30 pare for History 2nd Per.) IT was 10:00 a MESS! Oh well I think I can 10:30 do a little better with the debate
11:00 in history tomorrow-- stayed up 11:30 & worked on it and got a little (to 12:00 be using adjectives freely) accom-12:30 plished. So what? That's good excellent 13:00 for me. Terly don't I get a few 13:30 quotes out of you, Diary. (Gah! I 14:00 all they are is poetry. (I hope you if you dig them.) I'll have to try and remember to get a type Eraser tomorrow or Mrs. Anderson will shunk me. (slight under exaggeration.) Nothing too much happ-end today. Sat a hundred in math, new Student Teachers + even stiffer bones from all that exercise
I was. Weathers clearing up, though.
(only abt. 5 below, winds down to 120 m.p. second!).
another day, another dollar.
(In the red)
Goodnight! 8:42 p.m.

Sot up at 5:30 ect-ect.

Had to ride bike because I had to get type eraser for type 1 & that she would lose to get a type eraser for, Tiddlywinks.

Anyway, I got it in time to keep this Anderson's car blowing hot & cold. We lost our debate today because of the mere fact that the voters did not think of the presentation, but of popular opinion. (I'm not convinced. (Ha Ha Ha.)

Had a film in class today the subject was whiskey & we had to make last we could of lip-reading. Sot a hundred in math. One girl & another debate team - Ruth attention hasn't stopped laughing at me for losing debate.

My partner didn't have any material & I almost snuff it myself - oh well - I be beginning of health is sleep. - 9:30 P.M.
