

date. They dated for about a month & he proposed, wanting her to go to D.C.
with him when he graduated in July. She couldn't decide.
She went East with us in June & flew home from White Plains N. Y. so she could date him & decide.
When we got home they were ready to be engaged.
Barry asked for an app't (to ask for her hand) with a very surprised (and pleased) father - of the - to - be - bride.
They were in the affair some for a long time & Virginia was getting wild.

"He's (Dad) in there telling Barry all my faults!" she said.

Later, Barry told he he had been praying about his marital situation to the Lord asking the Lord was he or wasn't he going to send the right girl. While he was thus praying as if in a vision or dream he saw Virginia - long hair, smile & all - and wearing her glasses. He said he recognized her as soon as she walked through the class-room door.

But he might not have recognized her if she had not worn her glasses that day.
These spiritual and romantic episodes need to be recorded.
I imagine they have been by Barry and Virginia and Charlotte and Bryan.

Another one not recorded (I don't think it has) is one about Elizabeth and Marty (real).
She had started working the summer she grad from H. S. at the Y. When I ran took a work-teaching post over at Boulder, Colo, we had to leave her behind. She called up one day & in the course of the conversation she mentioned she had met a "neat" guy at a dance at the Y & had a date with him. My memory of the exact words used ~~was~~ is dim but I remember the general feelings etc. By the time we got home Liz was interested in this young man & very anxious to know anything to turn him away - especially Marty.

"Now Marty, be careful what you say" or words to that
