

effect -

She needn't have worried - marry but it off with the family immediately. A wonderful intelligent Elec. Eng. student with a good sense of humor. We've loved him ever since & are glad he married Liz.

Someday if I have time to write a book I'll mention Shirley's romances - we finally got a fine young phoenix as a son-in-law through her - Dan Bartholomew.
He was worth waiting for.
Writing this hump (back) remembrance - sweet & funny & some sad of the romances of the other children & sometimes I must write them down - but my time for right now is gone. I must quit for the moment.

Sun. March 18 1979 - Before I forget I want to write a little about Nancy's venture into business. Last summer when Nancy was anticipating moving into Bayton into a new home, Dad was thinking of building a barn-shed type lap building to house his farm equipment.

I suggested that we put Nancy into a plant business in the front part of it and start Nancy found the idea. When we investigated the going etc. we found we would have to "grow" everything we sold.
Nancy suggested I look around for a place in town that would do. Nancy and I started talking about a partnership with me putting up the money & her putting in the know-how.

I found a little old run down house in a commercial zone & also ~~the~~ investigated buying & building on some land on top of the hill across from Daly's Hamburger stand. When I finally realized how much it would cost to buy and build, I abandoned the idea & bought the old house for $21,000. It was a disaster but had definite possibilities.
Nancy caught the vision & I left it up to her to plan colors, paper etc. I asked Nancy if she was willing to put up her stock (6,000) as security & I would loan her the money to start & she would be the owner. I would be the landlord.
I bought her a book