

Dear Sarah: c.

Oct 6, 85

Enclosed is a copy of what I have passed out to three stores who seemed interested.

I went to one ski resort and they showed me a big bag of crocheted Christmas ornaments they were sending to a charity store because they didn't sell last year.

I will mail some more of these (enclosed) letters to stores who might be interested. I told them they would have to write to you themselves. If they are interested, they will not order until after the 1st of next year.

I also told them they would come washed, but not starched and blocked. If you think it's worth your time, quote them a price for starching and blocking. This will make them harder to mail, however.

You say you sent them 1, 2, 5, 3, 4. If you got 1, 2, 5 for 10¢ each & then 3 + 4 for 20¢ each, 1, 4, 10¢ each & 3, 5 & give the following

③

I can't give you any more orders, and don't send me any more crocheted goods. I'm going out of the business. Don't tell them here - I've tried. If I had opened my store it might have worked out differently. Or if my lady at the ski resort hadn't gone out of business.

I will send some more of these handouts to some stores who I think might be interested.

Bro Hall has sent a small wedding check to ~~both~~ both Charles & Peter. Your address was the only one I was sure of. I was afraid Chayas had moved.

I hope to hear from you, even if I'm not ordering or receiving. I know the Lord will bless you if you continue to be faithful.

I think of you & the others we loved so much. May the Lord bless you always,

Lee Hall

(L.H.H.)

Enclosed! Check for $50. U.S. The bank says the exchange rate is 1.00 - 1.00 which should net you