Dear Sis Hall

I write this letter in Windhoek south west Africa. I am here to sell my crochets. Please forgive me not answer your letter in time dear, I have lots of things in my mind that's why, I thanks very much for every thing I received every thing. me and my family was so very happy about the pictures you send me, they are beautifull, really beautifull. I am very glad about ~~think~~ thinking about me all the time and about sending those pictures.

I received also the check just in time I am ready to live Zimbabwe by tomorrow to S.A. by tomorrow I went to Backys Bank with my husband for the check.

They said it will be easy if you there in America have save money at Backays (have account at Backays) and it will be easy for us here to have it cash. now they say we must $3 for sending the check Back to your Bank there at America and we must come after two weeks to collect the money, but I told them that I am living they say, soon as you come back come for the money any way I thanks a lot.

about Baby's quilt I sell some here we did not enter the show Sister Swallowell went to stay at Chimanimani at north of Zimb. but in Zimb. we fail to enter the show. but it was only me ho had things to the show the others didnot. I received also the patters ornaments. Nacy write to me and said the women that always done ~~the~~ Crochet for me they have done a lot of that. I sent a parcel to you while I am here in Windhoek but I do not want you to ask ^{me} any thing about that parcel its a dress suit and a top you will do for your Sis Hall I was so surprise when you tell me that, they let you to be a president of Relief Society at the Church. I was surprise because me too before I live they put me to be a president of Highfield Relief Society Branch. I was wondering how it comes me and you at the same time. to me it was in August early. my children was so happy about every thing special the pictures they even said God gave us the Hall's family. we are given by God. As soon as I come to Zimbabwe I will sent your Chistmas ornaments at once.

pass my regard to your family special to elder Hall tell him in Gods love we will meet again.
in lots of love.
