

100 is as phony as a lead nickel.

The budget passed by a 4-to-1 vote.

In other business, the council approved an ordinance making the strip of Grant Avenue lying between East Main and 100 North a no-parking zone.

Development agency million budget tax repayments.

Under the 1993-94 budget, State Street's Smith/Shopko center, or project 87-10, will receive an allocation of $220,000. That amount is $3,600 less than the previous year and will go primarily for increment part agreement payments and sales tax repayments.

The budget also includes two other projects, 85-01 and 85-04. Area 85-01, Orem Tek Development, will receive $12,000 and $15,000 will go to 85-04, located along State Street between 400 and 800 South.

Both payments are related primarily to increment part agreement payments. The budget also included $115,500 for redevelopment

County drug enforcement team arre

Six adults and one juvenile were arrested by the Utah County Narcotics Enforcement Team (NET) June 3-4 during action which also resulted in the seizure of $2,000 worth of marijuana, $1,700 cash, two guns and a vehicle.

On June 3, NET officials arrested Dawayne Murdock, 24, 1375 W. 500 North, No. 44, Provo, and charged him with distribution of marijuana in a drug-free zone and violation of the Utah Tax Stamp Act.

Kimball A. Millet, 34, Springville, was charged with distribution of marijuana in a drug-free zone, possession of marijuana in a drug-free zone and violation of the Utah Tax Stamp Act.

Marolynn Forbush, 21, 360 W. 400 North, No. 77, Springville, was charged with possession of marijuana in a drug-free zone, distribution of marijuana in a drug-free zone, violation of the Utah Tax Stamp Act and possession of paraphernalia in a drug-free zone.

Police Beat

Nicholas Forbush, 21, same address, was charged with possession of marijuana in a drug-free zone, possession of cocaine in a drug-free zone and possession of paraphernalia.

On June 4, NET officials seized $200 worth of heroin, marijuana and drug paraphernalia. Arrested was Patricia Brackbury, 36, 1212 E. 120 North, Pleasant Grove, after a warrant was served on her residence.

She faces charges of possession of heroin with intent to distribute in a drug-free zone and possession of drug paraphernalia. Also arrested was Jon Hammond, 18, same address, and charged with possession of marijuana and paraphernalia in a drug-free zone.

The juvenile was charged with possession of marijuana and paraphernalia. All of those arrested are awaiting an appearance in American Fork Circuit Court.

SEARCH — The Utah County Sheriff's office is looking for Orem resident Scott K. Ross, 18 for questioning in connection with a stolen 1990 Pontiac vehicle wrecked at 5 a.m. Wednesday.

Lt. Ron Fernstedt said a Saler officer witnessed the occupants of the vehicle driving out of Woodland Hills at 70 mph. As the officer pursued, the driver of the vehicle drove off the road and struck a tree, causing $5,000 damage.

All three occupants fled the scene but two Orem male juve

Spanish Fork reviews budget

By LEANN MOODY
Herald Correspondent

SPANISH FORK — During a development.

The city will add to the cost of development a $500 recreation fee but did not look at

Provo man pl