

Forget-me-not -
Alaska's State Flower
collected in Anchorage

note:

all the Canadian Pavilions were especially good. The waiting in line was worth it, for the film presentations were something special;

The pictures from here to end of book are a few we took on the trips and represent a chronological journal of the tour.