

The Stern -

[Faint handwritten notes in cursive, mostly illegible]

Right-Chat Haunds!

Our P.V. I mess-mates

The art of conversation.

Dramatic Arts
Music - Dance -
Song aboard ship

[Faint handwritten notes in cursive, mostly illegible]

first stop - Ketchikan, Alaska

July 15. No pictures as Tracy had only one shot in camera and we will have to borrow & reproduce shots of rain forest, Salmon hatchery, and Totem pole museum. ^{from friends} In this area they have annual rainfall of 162".

Ketchikan is called "Salmon capitol of world" - fisheries almost died out before they started the hatcheries & restocked the streams.

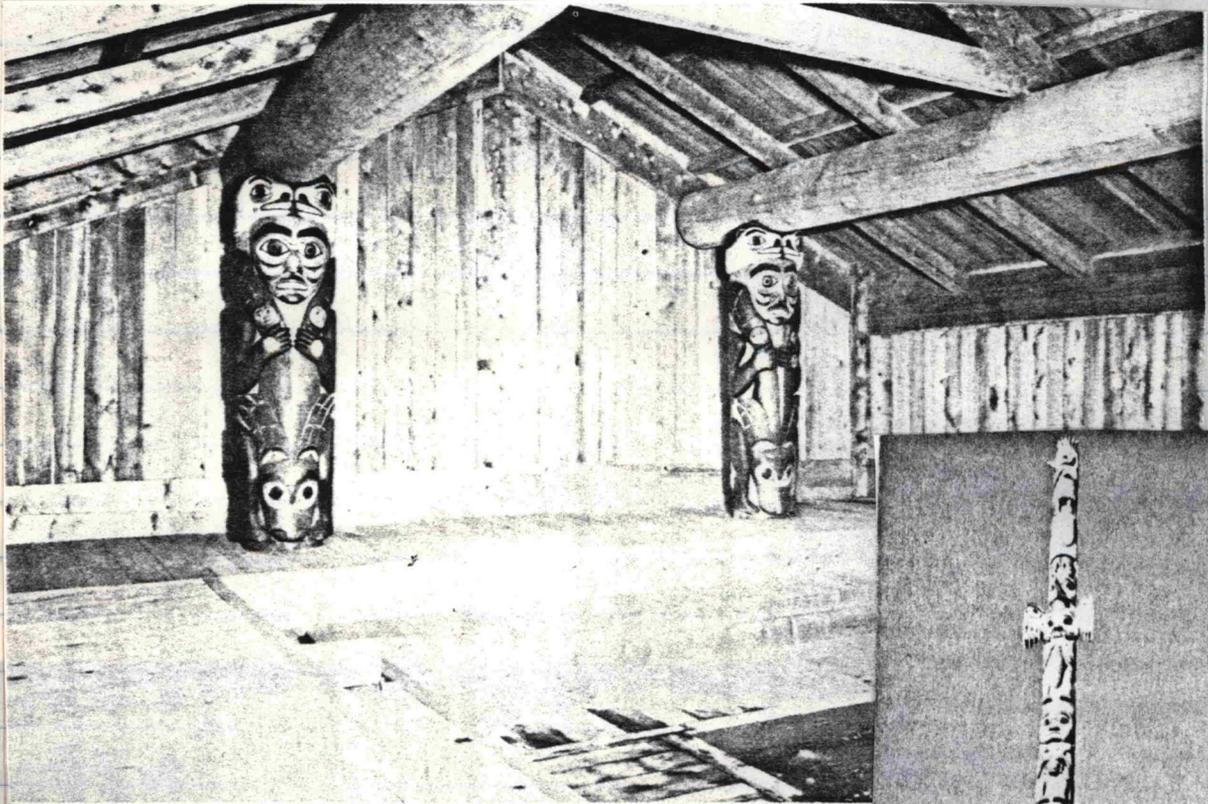

Fig. 33. Carved Posts, Mud Bight House

Illustrations from are all from

Fig. 34. Pole Designed for Mud Bight

"The Wolf and the Raven" written by Garfield and West

These photographs taken at "Mud Bight"

