November Hallmanack: 1991

Dear Family:

we are about to change our wills into living trusts. In order to estimate the value of our estate we have had to do some inventory work.

We plan to leave, on our deaths, (if not before) many of our things to our children. These will be indicated on a list which will be filed with our wills. It will be separate because it may change over the years. If either of us should live to be the age my father was before he died (96) the list will change because furniture usable now perhaps to our children will be pretty worn out and obsolete. Only sentimental value will remain. (Probably already true)

Because I would like some input into what you might like that is around this place, I have typed up a tentative list. After the items you will see a group of numbers from 1 to 6. I am sending you each a separate list. Each of you go through and mark which things you would like to have. Number them 1 to whatever in rank as to your 1st, 2nd, third choice & so on. After # 6 just put the 7,8, etc in the blank space after #6. Is that plain as mud? Anything that goes to the grandchildren will be given to them by the Hall parent from items he or she gets from the list. There may perhaps be little things We will give them personally, at our option.

The object is to give you the items you really most desire whenever possible. When there are more than one who wants an object, we will use our own judgement to try to be fair, and when there are still problems we will put names in the hat.

We are at this time thinking of giving all of Dad's papers & notebooks to the Y. Including his science notebooks. These can be accessed by close relatives in original at the Library. If any of you want zerox copies of Dad's notebooks you can borrow the books and have them zeroxed. The library will give us one zerox copy of each journal.

We did them
We have not put down things like computers, printers, keyboards, photographic equipment, phonographs, disc players, etc. These lose value so fast that by the time we die you will probably want to own one or give one to your children just to show them what kind of equipment Grandpa and Grandma used. Like the Player Piano.

Nor have we got to the enormous task of inventorying Dad's tools at the shop.

Nor have we listed tools, gardening equipment, etc.etc. at the home and farm. We will want to do this sometime, however and then you will get more lists. Anyone want a cat?(we will be glad to give you one NOW.)

We are naming Myself as Dad's trustee, Dad as mine, and Elizabeth as our Trustee after our death. Any expenses she incurs settling our estate will come out of our family trust (or the marital trust, I'm not sure which) after we die. We trust that Elizabeth will have the help she needs from anyone she asks to help her.

We are hoping that this will help ease things for you all when we go. I hope you will fill these sheets out for us, and return them soon. If you don't we will have to decide what to give you by ourselves, and hope you will be happy with it.

Everyone will take back all his or her gifts to us. We suggest that all our music and books that are not already given away before we die be divided into seven piles and given away that way. David, this includes your gift of the (gave to David) computer and printer, and I hope that I will get the genealogy into that before I go so no one will have to wade through that mess, and everyone can have a copy of the result.

Do Dad's music the same way.

We have asked Elizabeth to have only the brothers and sisters present when things are settled or discussed. Unless one of you dies before we do. In which case the spouse will represent that deceased child. The fewer people to imput, the better, we think. What we really want is for you all to come out of this still speaking to each other.

We do not plan to leave much in the way of money to you. We hope you feel that you have already had your inheritance through our gifts of the Mega Stock. This has helped you when you needed it most, we think.

We hope we have enough left in our estate to take care of us until we both die. Leave us in our own home with hired help as long as possible. We will leave it up to Elizabeth to decide if and when we get to the state where institutionalization is necessary. We're opting for a "drop Dead". But we don't want any of you to "drop dead" taking care of us.

Get your sweethearts to help you fill this out if you want but only put the name of the Hall child on the sheets.

I also haven't listed table linens. Those will come later. I don't have any of those that are any great shakes, anyway.

THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR THE WONDERFUL 50TH WEDDING CELEBRATION! WE HAVE HAD SO MANY FRIENDS COMMENT ON WHAT A FUN PARTY IT WAS. THANKS, THANKS, THANKS, THANKS, THANKS, THANKS A MILLION. THE BEST PART WAS HAVING YOU ALL TOGETHER WITH US.

I will send ALL the group pictures taken that Sunday. You pick out the picture that is best for YOUR family and write your name on the back of the picture. I will have 8 x 10's made and send them to you for Christmas.

of David & Nancy I have Ginger's, I will get Liz's when I am in California next week, I will get Sherlene's when she comes in December. So all I will need are the pictures wanted by the ones in Provo, and Charlotte's. Charlotte, I will get them in the mail as soon as possible. (mailed)

Thanks for the lovely time we had when we visited you, Virginia and Barry and Nathan and Warren and Jonathan and Sarah Elizabeth, and Rose Ellen, and Christian Fletcher, and Roland.

Love to all!
Grandpa and Grandma Hall

note: The "values" are put on the list to help us somewhat equalize gifts. We don't intend to charge you for the items or try for exact equals, either.

Same as above of childhood picture of Heber Otto Chlarson. (My grandfather.)

Envelope given to HTracy by his father which contained His ownmg certificate, mission calls and releases, ordination certificates, baptism certificate, mission calls and releases, death certificate, and patriarchal blessing. Also some clippings of Tracy and some of his (tracy"s) honors.

Some family genealogy books:

Florence Tracy's Book of Tracy Genealogy. She did an awfully lot of work out of this book. Ironically, it did not have Solomon Tracy's descendants in it. She has notated in the margins that she has or has not done the work. fair shape. "Tracy Genealogy, Ancestors and Descendants of Lieutenant Thomas Tracy of Norwich, Conn, 1660" compiled by Evert H. Tracy, M.D. With Tracy coat of Arms, Pub Albany, New York, Joel Munsell's Sons, Publisher, 1898.

there is a note in the front saying that this book can be purchased from "Goodspeed's Book Shop, 18 Beacon Street, Boston, 8, Massachusetts. Someone could write and see if it is still available and how much it would cost. The descent from Sir Thomas Tracy of Barnstaple, Devonshire and Stanway Gloucestershire, has been called into question by some eminent American genealogists, but is still invaluable for the Descendants of Thomas Tracy. He has the wrong wife for Thomas, I think. Someone who is ambitious should check his early american records against the original town records to see if the town records were his sources. Much original record searching has obviously been done, indicated by his History in the front of the book.

"The Coopriders Chronicles," by J.L. Coopriders, Clay City, Clay County, Indiana.

I (IRH) was told about this book by a distant cousin, Irene Lankford, who lives in Clay City, Indiana. It contains the descendants of three coopriders who married daughters of Walker Lankford. I have done some of the work but was stopped by the 100 year rule. Some more work could probably be done now as it has been some time since I worked from the book. quite good shape.

"Our Pioneer Ancestors, the Davis Family" by Ruth Hendricks Davis. Owned and signed by my father, E.F. Langford, and given to me by him. A lot of work could be done from this book now, as the society no longer requires direct descent.

"History of Franklin and Pickaway Counties, Ohio" Illustrations and Biographical Sketches. Some of the Prominent Men and Pioneers Pub by Williams Bros, 1880. (Frontspiece). Republished by the Heritage Collection of History and Biography. We purchased it from the Pickaway Historical Society in 1978 for $31.50.

Ida-Rose's collection of genealogical "How to" books, plus some pamphlets from the Genealogical Society, now out of print. Includes English, Scotch, American and general LDS reference and "how to" books.

Ida-Rose's 2 legal size files full of misc genealogy, etc. (good luck! I hope to have all the pertinent material on the computer before I leave this world, but.....)

Remington Hearing aid owned by EF Langford.

1 pr old glasses owned by EF Langford (brass rims)

1 pr old glasses owned by EF Langford.

Old fashioned shaver owned by EF Langford. I used to watch my dad use this as a child. It was a curved metal blade & folds up into a bone (I guess) handle. I used to watch my father shave with this when I was a little girl. I thought it most wonderful. He would run the razor over a razor strop back and forth, lather up and go after it.

Silver plated buckled owned by EF Langford. My mother said he had it when they were married.

original engagement ring (without diamond) given to Charlotte by EF Langford.

Original engagement (without diamond) given to Ida-Rose by H.T.Hall

Gold watch given to Charlotte Hall by EF Langford either before or as a wedding gift. Given by IR by her father.

You kids might remember this:

Ivory round jewelry box with velvet top (Mauve) which was always on Grandmother Langford's dressing table. She kept pins and needles in the top and all kinds of odds and ends inside of it.

Shell pin belonging to Charlotte Langford.

Blue -green tiny entwined bead necklace belonging to Charlotte Langford. Broken. It belonged to her mother before her. Could be mended.

two blue flower cuff links belonging to Charlotte Langford.

pg 9

1 pr of purple flower cuff links belonging to Charlotte Langford.

9 odd peices of old sterling and silver plate silverware. None matching which IRH found among Charlotte Langford's silverware. I have no idea who these belonged to.

Jewelry: (You can tell I'm not much of a hand at acquiring jewelry.)

Ida-Rose's second diamond engagement ring. She lost the first. Dad paid $350 for it, but it has been appraised recently (1/3 carat) for 1300-1500. dollars.

The amethyst Dad gave me when he was courting me. The one all you girls wore. Now in process of being evaluated. I think he paid something like $15.00

1 gold pin made by HTH of man-made diamond (One of the early Mega ones)

one brown Tiger's eye penant which Dad brought back for IR from his trip to S. Africa for GE two brown twist on brown tiger eye ear-rings purchased in SA on our mission.

One brown round-bead tiger eye necklace purchased in SA on our mission.

one blue\brown tiger's eye about one inch. From Dad's GE trip to Africa.

two pearl necklaces. One a gift from Nancy. She gets it back.

one pearl necklace. One a gift from Dad. Neither are cultured pearls, but the jeweler said they were nice costume pieces.

Brocade jewelry box given to me by a Japanese scientist visitor. Red and gold.

Sterling silver, gold plated gold chain. I wore with Dad's gold award when he had his retirement party. $50.

one same as above chain I use to switch lengths for my brown tiger's eye. $35.

one small heart with U of U symbol ontop of mother of pearl/with chain/

Gold swiss watch. $70. IRH's. Replaced lost one Liz gave me.

Golden spike tie pin. (tracy's)

Gold Watch given to him by Chem dept when he retired.

Cultured Pearl tie pin (grey) HTH

Sigma Xi pin.

Washington Jr High class riog. IRH

3 framed diamond pictures given to Tracy when he left GE. Two in Hall one in Shed.

I don't know the value of some of the above things, but by the time they go to anyone they may have no value except sentimental--you may just want to sent most of them to DI.

SENTIMENTAL VALUE ITEMS AND ITEMS ALREADY GIVEN AWAY, Some items have been given to us as gifts in which case, of course, they go back to the donor. Some I have already given to various of the children.

This may be helpful in distributing items of sentimental value by being able to decide who has things and who hasn't things.

Grm Langford's Bedspread. I said that it was to go to the one who had done the most genealogy. Promised to Sherlene. She should give it to the one in the future who does the most genealogy (probably to a grand child, but only if she thinks that person would treasure it.

Gr Langford's table cloth. (already delivered to Sherlene) My mother gave this to me with the instructions that it was to go to Sherlene. I gave it to her for her 35th birthday with instructions that she should give it to Laura on her 35th.

Piano. The one we bought for and from Liz when she moved to NoJ. I refinished it and stored it at David's. we gave it to David.

Butterfly Tray given to us by Uncle Wendell when he came back from Argentina mission. Give to Charlotte. Or to one of Uncle Wendell's kids.

Grandmother Ida Charlson's quilt top, put together and quilted by Grandmother Langford. Given to Virginia as she is the only one doing any quilting and she uses it only for display. Delivered.

Grandmother Johanna Charlotte Charlson's baby bed sheets. Given to Charlotte. Delivered.

A 36 x 36" crocheted square I found in my mother's things after she died. I do not know if it's her work or her mother's work. It is made up of five squares stitched together both ways. Could be used to center a table cloth.

two pillowcase crocheted edgings. I rescued these from two old pillowcases given me by my mother. I think Ida-Isabella Norton did them. They look like her work.

Scrapbook made of Tracy's historic visit to England when he took the Bedford genealogy back five or so generations. He made it for me upon his return. To go to Tracy Jr.

Round Piano Stool (downstairs) Gift from Tracy and Betsy. To go back to them.

Southern Utah Painting: Give back to Nancy

Glass weights. Given to us by Liz. Give back to her, several green Pottery peices (at farm) give back to Betsy.

Photographs: Give any pictures and negatives of our children by themselves and with their families alone to the one the picture is of.

The movie pictures have been mostly put on videos. Finish the job if we haven't and pay for copies for all of you out of the estate. Draw, if you want, for the originals, Glass cake saver tray and cover. Gift from Nancy. Goes back to Nancy.

Silver beads and turquoise started but never finished by Nancy. I gave these back to her.

Cloisonne three piece serving set given to us by the chines.

Green satin peice of material which is designed to be quilted. Give to whoever is willing to hand quilt it.

we have a lot of crocheted Zimbabwe dresses. I plan to divided these into piles and given them to the 7 daughters and dau-in-laws to give to girl daughter's and descendants etc. Sell them if you want.

W have enough zimbabwe tableclothes, couch throws, etc (I think) to give one each to each of the grandsons. We will determine who gets which by drawing names out of a hat. These will ge given as wedding presents for those grandsons who marry while I still live. After my death (if not before) I will give the others to the respective mothers to give to them when they marry. The boys didn't get anything much when we came home from Zimbabwe.

I have probably enough table cloths for each of the families of our children to have one after we are gone. Choose by lot.

Remember? Grandmother Langford's mother of pearl backed picture of the capitol building in D.C. It always hung in her house.

There are a couple of drafting tables at the farm and at the sheds.

There are several metal files there too.

And a desk.

None very vaulable, but useful if you don't have one.

I think there are some odds and ends of things left by Grandfather Hall down in the shed in and old trunk. Let you know later.

If I have left off the most important thing in your lifetime, let me know.

Love, Mom
