I misquoted Libby. The actual statement was "It's hard to be close to your watch." We all said, "What?" and she said it again, louder. Thanks to Sus and Lili for their more accurate memories.

We went online to the Fiji Mission homepage and saw photos of missionaries washing clothes in washtubs, so we figure the experiences of Peter's friends were probably lucky aberrations from the norm. Lili ordered her passport yesterday. She got a whole bunch of shots last week and has a lot more still to get. She's really happy and excited, even tho' shots have always been one of her dreadedest ordeals. Wow, "dreadedest"-- I like that; I'm always sad when I have to eliminate a great invented word when I'm editing.

Thanks to Nancy for the news about the PBS production on Joseph Smith. I thought it was so well done and I'm eager to watch it again. By the way, have y'all heard when the PBS history-of-diamond (or whatever it was exactly) program is supposed to air?

Happy beautiful mid-November. The weather has been so wonderful-- I hope it stays this way for another month!

Love and cracklin' leaves, from Betsy
