

didn't know on Sunday how long the fares would last and was afraid they would expire at midnight on Sunday, so I just took a guess and booked for August 5-19. Hope we hit it. The fares are non-refundable and have major penalties attached with changing them.

Here's some incentive for Sherlene. There is a genealogy conference sponsored by Palentines to America in New York on the weekend of June 11th. That's the same weekend that Dad will be flying to New York for this G.E. commemorative celebration. The conference isn't in Albany, but maybe the conference and Dad's dealings at Schenectady could be combined. Barry has plans to attend this conference, so you could drive up with him from here, Sherlene. I can't put my hands on the conference information at the moment, but can e-mail you more about it later.

We were sorry to have missed Michael's wedding, but fares were $548 roundtrip. In addition, I spent so many weeks away from home with the Music Man performances, that I figured it was time to be home and get my kids school work and bedtimes back on track. We heard the wedding and reception were very lovely.

Love,

Ginger
