others incorrect idea. Anyway, sorry if you've been hearing from people who think they are doing your branch a favor by buying the ~~other~~ crocheted items. I did get to church last Sunday to hear Richard Crosland's homecoming talk. We can't wait to hear yours. One of the first questions at Relief Society supper tables is always "what has anyone heard from the Halls?" We follow your mission with our interest and prayers. Love, Pa

If you're getting the ward paper you will know that we have another daughter. She was born Sept 2 which was 3 weeks early so she was small - 6 lbs. 3 oz. but since I had spent the previous 3 weeks in bed because my blood pressure was getting high, we were happy she came a little early. This a real cutie and we're all having fun with her. Both the baby and I are doing fine.

The crocheted items you sent started arriving in late May and early June. I showed them in Relief Society at July and August work meetings and many people were interested in them but only 4 or 5 have called me to get your address. I did tell them, as per Gđa Rose's letter, that you wanted to buy before Oct. so you should have heard by now from all these who are really interested. They had lots of questions I couldn't answer like could the dresses be longer in the top etc. - so I just suggested they write to you. Unfortunately, I ~~told~~ told them that you were getting these from ~~branch~~ members to raise money for them - I reread your letters and don't know why I got that idea - maybe in discussing it with others who had heard from you we encouraged each
