

Dear Tracy and Ida Rose -

Our thoughts and prayers are always with you. We get news of you in various ways and we are happy to hear of your experiences. We know you are a great strength. We hope your health is good and your energies high. The work is demanding. Jack and I told us we worked their lives the mission good care and each everyone where you are who need your special brand of sustenance and spirit. We miss you but realize that your time there will not be enough. Enjoy a happy holiday season.

Love
John & All

Merry Christmas

“As birds of winter pause in flight
To perch on limbs
of snowy white,
Their cheery singing seems to say,
‘Welcome, welcome, Christmas Day!’”
