Dear Tracy and Ida Rose:

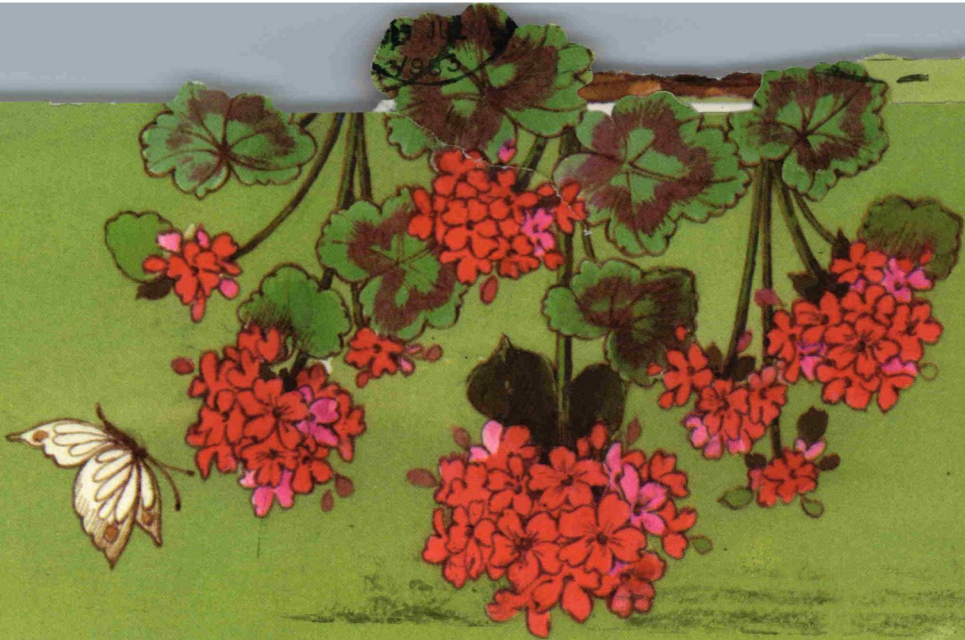

We certainly appreciate your thoughtfulness and interest in our mission. We also are grateful for your help. It will be used well.

I had to give a short talk today, so I told the story of my grand father Skousen's conversion and what that one baptism means in terms of the Skousen's in America today. We estimate there are around 4000 of us (with all the different names) since my grandparents joined the church in March, 1857. That is more than 3 generations, of course, in some lines. But, in my case, he

P.S. It was 85 years ago this year that was born in 1828, dad in 1872 and me in 1915. Thanks again.

Karl and Hazel.
