

Dear Bros. Sis. Holl,

Sorry I missed you in Johannesburg, met Elder Judd at the mission office - hope he forwarded your mail on Oct. How are you finding Cape Town? a bit different from Harare I would imagine and must be an improvement on Johannesburg. It has been some considerable time since we were in Cape Town but what I remember most were the number of coloured people (or mixed blood groupings) which I didn't like the look of particularly but would imagine they are no different from the rest of us - have you done any work with them? Things here are very much as you remember but we have had some very nice rains these past two or three weeks and with a bit of help from the application of fertilizer the garden has improved tremendously and is looking very nice and green. We have been inundated with African women calling round to the house selling knitted dresses but I don't think there is quite the demand that there used to be so the poor devils are tramping around the town trying to sell their hard work. Karen has just been staying with us for a few days on her way back from Austria - where she went skiing but was quite looking forward to getting back to work in Johannesburg, unfortunately she is not mobile at present otherwise I am sure she would make more contact with church. You probably heard that we had a shortage of petrol here for a while which restricted most people from travelling (not the sport, elephants & tourists) but now the situation has been resolved remarkably there is plenty - more than they are able to sell.

Anyway you two should please take it easy and hope things are going well for you and all our best wishes to you
