

Dear Family,

9-17-89

Hi, this is Zina again.
Happy Post-Birthday, Laura.
Hope your leg's better, Steven.
Howdy all cousins.
Thanks for your never-ending letters, Uncle Wendell. I really enjoy reading them.

I have a job. I'm a checker at Storehouse Markets. I like having a job, although it's hard.

My family can keep you posted on their events themselves, now - if it's important to them. I've quit the Post.

Has anybody read "A Separate Peace"
recently? I loved that book.
Any suggestions for more good reading material?

That's all for September. Ciao.

Love, Zina
