Dear Family,

We do not have a great deal of news but you know me, I'll probably be able to fill a couple of pages anyhow. We enjoyed all the letters from everyone. The Christmas holiday seem so long ago. Mom's party was great, especially when Liz & Harry arrived in the middle of it! I think Mom has to be one of the world's best grandmothers - Each of my children feels personally loved by her and Aunt Jenny often says, "Grandma really knows what kids like!" (And let's not forget Grandpa's toboggan!) Grandpa Langford looks so much better since coming to Mom's, and it is nice for us for the children to become more familiar with him.

Joey's business is in the sink or swim crew right now - It's been there for some time now but Joey seems to be a pretty good swimmer. The water's a little choppy but his endurance is pretty good and both the progress so far and our prayers seem to tell us to keep on trying. The returns on his mailings so far show we can probably be in clear water within a couple of years.
The really nice thing would be to sell his new technology - which would also require time.
So we'll see what happens and keep working.

The children are fine, except for Alex who is struggling with a very bad cold. But his spirits have been pretty good anyway.
A few nights ago I was changing him and putting him in the laundry room downstairs. I was also horsing around with Tracy and Gina in the hallway while I waited for him to finish. Then I laid Alex on the washer and ran upstairs to get some diapers for him.
On the way back and forth I continued the hilarious playing with T & Z. As
