Dear Family,

We decided that for home evening we would all sit down and tell you about what we've been doing. Mom (Charlotte) is scribe.

Hyunum: We went to Temple Site (Sandiego.)

I rode a tractor (Bulldozer D-9 Cat) Please Mom

I want to ride a Backhoe, Please! Please Mom

I want to ride a Backhoe. Please!... (repeated 20 times)

Sarah: We rode the Amtrak to Disneyland.

I liked the rollercoaster best (Matter ^{sp?} Horn) and I liked the skyride. I got a Math award at school. The principal shook my hand.

Hannah: I have new friends now. Their names are Josh, Chris, Nicole, Lorissa, and Shea.

We went to Cousin Jeremy's house and played freeze tag and plain old tag. I know how to ride my bike without training wheels. I have a new Library hour. I go and hear stories. We had a hunt at " " (Paper pigs were hidden in book racks).

Willis: I went to Sea World and the Wild Animal Park and was held the whole time. I cried every time my Mom put me in the stroller. I was good at Disneyland, though. I roll over, slobber alot, and like to stick my tongue out.

Bryan: We went to the Beach one Sat. but it was too windy so we left early. Will have to go again. I won't be going to Law School. I'm sending out more resumes. Softball is underway. So far at bat I'm 5 for 8. (Bryan has been asked to be an assistant to the Word Mission leader)

Charlotte: I joined the Women's Softball team. I played catcher at our first game last Sat. My legs are so sore! ^(I presume from getting up & down from crouched position) that I can hardly walk. I hit 1 for 3 - not too bad for an old, out of shape lady who hasn't swung a bat in 10 years. (We lost 23-4!)

Congratulations to Brian & Navian on the birth of Lorraine. Wish we could be there to meet her! We look forward to hearing from Renee & Res this month.

We were glad to hear that DJ's surgery went well and we hope & pray all continues well.

That's all from here.

Love,
Bryan, Charlotte & Kids.
