Dear Friends/Family,

I'm forwarding on Nort Chaston's note to correct a misperception in my last e-mail about what I thought the sales person told me over the phone about what was available and that I thought I ordered. This new family history British census resource IS exciting information for our family. Dan and I spent several days last spring in the Norfolk area trying to chase down a lead about our early Tracy lines--and we spent some time in Warwick, following family lines for us both. I am very anxious to see that census information when it comes. (We came home with inches of photocopied records and some very good leads we still have not had time to unravel/interpret--one more project for this coming year). Love, Sherlene> P.S. You Halls--I just watched a rebroadcast of the BYU choir rendition of "The Lord is My Shepherd" at a Sat. session of General Conf. Did you all see Erin and Huntington Tracy singing? Gorgeous/handsome to hear, see. Tracy's radiant countenance was right behind Pres. Faust's while he read all the names for sustaining. I think they placed him there deliberately--what a visual aid! We appreciate how you nieces and nephews on both sides share your gifts!

pastime of doing and writing about family history. 'Looks like this SourceGuide came out just in time for me. 'Hope some of you find it valuable, too.

Cheers!

Sherlene
