

Ivory Storyknives - Bone used to tell stories on
- mud or snow.

Basketry - & twined basketry (1890's) material with rye grass. - baby baskets - boat inside, figurines - masks - 2 sites only have yielded coil basketry - mainly in places where traders active.

Coiled Basketry - began in 1960-70 Sewing - Eskimo women living n. of St Michael & on Aleutian esp. females - poor people even reticulate salmon skins.

Caribou considered softest & most handsome skin for a Kodiak woman's parka used sinew & bone needles new arts -

prod. in arts now limited to a few villages scarcely any ethnic handicrafts come from Aleutian, Kodiak Island or Prince Island sound. By early 1900's the Aleut & Pacific Ind had abandoned their arts.

In So. & N. the younger generation has taken art training & combine it with their heritage model Kayaks -

Basketry - almost all women involved early but by 1971 could only find a few basket makers.

Strong resurgence of basketry art. esp. women of
S. A. Alaska

Ivory Carving & Graphite Art & Wood Carving

new art for artis sake. not for religious or utilitarian reason.

just skin sewing.
women now make dolls, but men starting in this new art.

rest of book is ~~of~~ photographs of examples of art covered in 1st part of book