Happy Valentine to all our dear friends and relatives!

We moved into our very unusual but lovely new home two days before Christmas. It delightfully contains books, games, and children.

This year, it looks like Sandy will visit Finland, Italy and Australia. Recently he shaved his head. Now that the hair's grown out a fraction of an inch, Wendy rather likes it. The kids think it looks like Curly Howard. Thanks to his newest games, DOOM and DOOM II, he has been on radio talk shows in Utah (KSL!) and in newspapers and magazines.

Wendy likes playing house in her new home, international cooking and keeping track of everyone's activities.

Last summer Alice had the pleasure of going to England and Wales with Sandy and Grandma and Grandpa Petersen, two great-aunts and a great-uncle. She was inducted into the Natl Jr. Honor Society, plays the violin in a youth orchestra, and currently has a major role in a school play for which she auditioned. She has been attending an average of one dance a week since December.

Arthur adores his dad and mom. He plays the trombone at school and is still the speediest boy around. He's very happy with the basketball standard Mom put up all by herself. Arthur is a reader and is almost done with the Narnia books by C.S. Lewis.

Grant wants to become a game designer when he grows up. His very important 8th birthday is a month away when he will be baptized. Grant is conscientious and loves to wrestle and play pretend with his brothers. He is a reader, too, and especially likes Asterix.

We learned that 5-year-olds laugh an average of 200 times a day (adults only six). Lincoln broke all giggle records and we're sad that now he is 6 we don't hear as much laughter (just kidding-- he still laughs plenty). Lincoln spends lots of time visiting friends.

Spencer is 2 1/2, a joy to have in our home. He is fascinated by insects and other life. When Grandpa and Grandma Hall were here, Spencer got so fond of them, he'd ask for Grandma in need, not Momma. Recently he was seen "imitating" Dad, by holding a big fat book in his lap and, when he was called by us, saying, "Just a minit, just a minit." All four boys are great swimmers and enjoy the pool daily in the stifling heat of long Texas summers.

We pray for your welfare and love hearing from y'all. Our new address is 108 Reliance Ct., Rockwall, TX 75087.

With love from the Petersens

We loved your Christmas letter. We'll try to stop by and see you next time we're in Utah.
Love, Wendy
