

Blenda J. L. Butler

MIDVALE—Blenda Jackson Langford Butler, 71, 42 E. Wasatch St., Midvale, died Tuesday, 6:05 p.m. of a heart attack in a Murray hospital.

Born Nov. 9, 1892, in Colonia Oaxaca, Sorona, Mex.; a daughter of James Harvey and Rose Ellen Jackson Langford. Married Park D. Butler, Feb. 23, 1927, in the Salt Lake Temple. Came to United States in August 1912. Historian for a number of years, Glover Camp, Daughters of Utah Pioneers. Member Midvale Second Ward, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Temple worker at time of death. Relief Society and singing mothers, Midvale Second Ward.

Survivors: husband, Midvale; son, Donald L., Sandy; daughter, Mrs. Beverly Strong, Sparks, Nev.; seven grandchildren; brothers, Ernest, Ogden; Angus, Magna; Fount, Overton, Nev.; Clarence, Las Vegas, Nev.; Orlando, Mexico; and Anthon, Spanish Fork; sisters, Mrs. Annis Langford, Mrs. Ella Snell, both Salt Lake City; Mrs. Vera Snell, Bountiful; and Mrs. Pearl Winegar, Salt Lake City.

Funeral services Friday, 12:30 p.m. in Midvale Second Ward chapel. Friends call 8090 S. State St., Thursday from 6 to 8 p.m. and Friday before services. Burial, Midvale City Cemetery.

r
g
T
J
b
S
C d
m
l
W
A L
P
d
t
a
C
M S c f v
i
F
A
C
2
l
l t
/
s r E l e l
c
H
F
L
l e