

These interesting results on the internal modes provide direct evidence that anharmonic effects which can be attributed to strong proton-halogen coupling or hydrogen bonding effects are present in NH_4Cl and NH_4Br .