40-0019

The image shows a sheet of graph paper with a header row at the top. The header row is divided into 15 columns. The first column on the left contains the handwritten number '40-0019'. The remaining 14 columns are empty. Below the header row, there are 25 more rows of the grid, all of which are empty. The grid lines are thin and black, and the paper has a light cream or off-white color.
