70-1196

The image shows a sheet of graph paper with a grid of 20 columns and 25 rows. The top row is a header row. The second column is defined by a double vertical line, creating a narrow column. The remaining 18 columns are of equal width. The grid is mostly empty, with the handwritten text '70-1196' in the top-left cell and 'Frisch, R.C.' centered at the top of the page.
