Dear Mr. Hall:

Thank you for your Order No. P-2447 forwarded to us through our Palo Alto, California Office. We expect to make shipment of this equipment as indicated on our Acknowledgment.

This appears to be our only recent opportunity to supply our equipment to you, and we do not have data necessary for consideration of credit terms. If you wish this order handled on our standard open-account net thirty day terms, we would appreciate receiving certain information. The information normally requested consists of the names and addresses of several accounts from whom you are regularly buying in substantial amounts, a bank reference, and a copy of a recent financial statement, which will be kept completely confidential.

You may wish to send us your check for $1196.00 prior to the expected shipping dates. If you prefer, shipment could be made on a C.O.D. basis for the invoice amount plus shipping and C.O.D. charges.

We are prepared to give prompt attention to your reply.

Very truly yours,
