Charlotte Weight—Oct 2007

Charlotte graduated from BYU with a University Studies major. She served a mission to the Buenos Aires North Mission. Her senior year at BYU her parents paid her to move out of their home. The first week after being kicked out she met and soon fell in love with Bryan Young Weight. They were married Dec 17, 1977 in the Manti Temple. She was born on Oct 20, 1953 (her father H. Tracy Hall's birthday and soon after became his favorite child--just kidding!) She planned to enter a master's program in Library Science but the children came along and she opted to stay at home with them. She and Bryan moved around many times during their early years of marriage as Bryan took engineering field assignments in different areas of the west. They started their own engineering business in beautiful Portland, OR in 1988 and lived there for about 20 years before moving to the Chicago, IL area where Bryan works in forensic engineering. Charlotte's greatest joy is spending time with her husband, children and her small grandson. She also enjoys growing Dahlias, quilting, vegetable gardening and loves living on small acreage. It reminds her of the peaceful days on her parent's Payson farm. She and Bryan have four children, Sarah—married to Brandon Frank, Hannah—married to Josh Holt with son Logan age 20 months with another little boy due in February 2008, Hyrum Robert Weight at BYU and Willis Tracy Weight currently serving a mission in Michigan.
