Dear Mr. Novella:

I appreciate your taking time to write a letter to me concerning the article written in PARADE by Jack Anderson, in which he quoted my beliefs in a life after death.

I, as do you, abhor the horrible and numerous crimes that have been committed by some religionists in God's name. I also abhor the horrible and numerous crimes that have been committed by atheists in whatever name they have been committed. I excuse neither.

Very truly yours, H. Tracy Hall, Director of Research
